STEFANO GIULIANETTI

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Congratulations on behalf of all the staff at Much Ado About Me to the cast and crew of Axis Theatre's The Emperor's New Threads on their 4 Jessie nominations including Outstanding Production, Design, Artistic Creation, and Significant Artistic Achievement for Ensemble Performance. The stellar cast includes performers Josue Laboucane, Tanya Podlozniuk, stage manager Dorothy Jenkins and of course the inimitable Stefano Giulianetti. Created by Melody Anderson and Peter Anderson, 'Emperor' showcases the cast with brilliant physical comedy, dazzling fashions and amazing masks.

In case you missed the show, which played to over 18,000 children across BC this past January to March, fret not, as the talented cast will be picking up the tour again this fall (whew!). Hopefully they'll have to make room in the van for a few Jessie statuettes!

Back to School

As reward for a year's work well done, many actors would consider taking time off for the traditional summer hiatus, but not actor Stefano Giulianetti. While many rush to put aside their craft, the modest and exceptionally talented Stefano Giulianetti is gearing up to further his seemingly endless skills at Antonio Fava's International School of Commedia Dell'Arte in Reggio Emilia, Italy. This on the heels of his recently completed tour with Kaleidoscope Theatre for The Boy Who Learned To Fly, where he was flying in the aerial silks, juggling, balancing and entertaining kids across the west coast with cast mates Trevor Hinton and Ming Hudson. Aware that his fans will miss him he assured us at muchado that he'll be back in action this fall with Axis Theatre (see above).

Speaking of schools, look for Giulianetti in Douglas College's latest theatre campaign! (www.douglas.bc.ca)
