

MUCH ADO ABOUT ME

SKETCHY BUSINESS

After exercising his funny bone all summer in Toronto filming the LIFE Network TV Show "Sketch Troop", it's finally time to sit back and watch the fruits of his labour. The reality-based show (which had just finished airing at time of publication) documented the work of 12 actor/comedians from across Canada as they worked towards building a sketch comedy troupe. After three weeks of writing, rehearsing and performing a sold out sketch comedy show, half of the performers got the chance to take the show to Montreal's prestigious "Just For Laughs" comedy festival this past July. As well as sketch, the brave actors also got a chance to perform stand up at Yuk Yuk's comedy club.

Did Stefano make the cut?
What happened to the comedy troupe?

If you've been watching, you'll know the answers...if you haven't seen it yet, tune in on New Year's Day from 10am to 3pm (pacific) on LIFE Network to see the whole series back to back. That's right! FIVE straight hours of Stefano... what better way to ring in the new year?!

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Lucky Giulianetti fans from across Canada can look forward to the live Stefano experience in the new year as jet-set-Stefano takes off to Calgary in January to perform at the One Yellow Rabbit High Performance Rodeo. The gifted actor will be playing Heathcliff in "The Heights", a gritty urban adaptation of Emily Brontë's "Wuthering Heights" alongside performer and writer Nicole Zylstra (Ghosts of Christmas Past, Sketch Troop). Catch him January 22nd, 23rd & 24th at the Big Secret Theatre or visit www.oyr.org for more info. In February, he's back in the Sketch Troop as they take to the streets on a southern Ontario/Quebec live comedy tour. Watch for the ensuing documentary "Road to Funny" on LIFE Network. ## WORKING HARD OR HARDLY WORKING?

WHAT STEFANO GIULIANETTI HAS BEEN UP TO IN THE PAST SIX MONTHS

The latter half of 2002 has been a whirlwind of work for our auspicious actor Stefano Giulianetti. After returning in early July from sketch troop comedy boot camp, Giulianetti got back in touch with his inner child at YMCA's summer drama camps. The 6 to 11 year old kids insisted he was the teacher, but Giulianetti was just happy to be hanging around "people his own age."

Next came an invitation to the 15th Annual Vancouver Comedy Festival (July 26th to August 5th). Locals and tourists alike were entertained and frightened as the likes of Arlecchino, Dottore, Capitano, and Pulcinella roved the streets and alleyways of Granville Island. Bella Luna Theatre brought the traditional Italian masks of Commedia Dell'Arte to the festival and took it by storm...luckily the weather was good.

Continuing the hat trick of hilarity, September saw Giulianetti perform at the Vancouver Fringe Festival in the acclaimed "Antiques Improv Roadshow." This was the second time Instant Theatre performed this show and again was a great success. Audience is encouraged to bring an object that gets 'appraised' and then inspires a short improvised scene. Stefano found himself appraising a grenade, but diffused the situation brilliantly.

FLICK PICKS – The hot movies this holiday season

- PINOCCHIO - The traditional Italian fairy tale as portrayed by actor/director Roberto Benigni (Johnny Stecchino, Life is Beautiful)
[Christmas Day in theatres]
- COMEDIAN - Jerry Seinfeld starts from scratch and takes his comedy on the road. An excellent glimpse inside the comedy circuit.
[Soon to video or in second run theatres]
- BARAKA - In capturing the planet's glories and violent calamities Baraka tells the spellbinding story of man's impact on the world.
[Just released to video]
