Talented Actor and Host of The Antiques Improv Roadshow, Stefano Giulianetti

And now, your Host: STEFANO GIULIANETTI

The Antiques Improv Roadshow rolls into town for a week of highbrow fun May 17 – 21, 2005 at Performance Works hosted by Vancouver's own Stefano Giulianetti. Enjoy inspired story telling based on objects brought to the show by the audience as Instant Theatre performs improvised adaptation of TV's Antiques Roadshow.

The improvised stage adaptation of the popular TV show presents Vancouver's best improvisers creating stories from items brought in by the audience. While that moldy tub of mayo in the fridge won't qualify for the real Antiques Roadshow, it may be just what the Improv Roadshow is looking for. They may not unearth a fortune, but they'll definitely roll out some laughs.

Bring you valued ancient treasures (or just junk you can't give away) and leave with a priceless memory.

ROMAN HOLIDAYS

We are pleased to announce that Mediterranean Actor Stefano Giulianetti will be travelling to Italy for the month of June to audition and meet with casting directors in Rome and Milan. His last two trips last October and January –as reported HERE FIRST at Much Ado About Me in Volume 7, Number 2 – were quite successful, and we wish him the best again this time around.
