DECEMBER 2005

1+1=TOUR

Simply say the magic words "Shalakazap!" and versatile actor Stefano Giulianetti is at it again! This time, he's taking his charming brand of comedy to schools across BC for Axis Theatre's play Shalakazap! The tour extends to over 100 elementary schools from Victoria to Dawson Creek with castmates Lyndsay Johnston, Evangela Dueck and stage manager Samara Van Nostrand.

On the heels of his last tour (see "The Best Italian" below), this youthful foray will keep Giulianetti on the road until early February with a well-deserved hiatus over the holidays, of course.

The show tackles the subjects of problem solving and math, which according to Giulianetti's 3rd grade teacher weren't his strongest skills. When asked to confirm this, Stefano's publicist denied all allegations stating: 'He's rubber, you're glue, whatever you say, bounces off him and sticks to you.'

THE BEST ITALIAN EVER!

This past September, audiences all over BC were treated to an eclectic performance by Italian-Canadian Actor Stefano Giulianetti as he toured with BellaLuna Productions' The Best Italian Variety Show –

Ever! Dubbed a 'mini Heritage tour of BC', the show went to Trail, Kamloops, East Van and North Burnaby delighting over 900 people with a good dose of splashy entertainment featuring comedians, game shows, masked characters, sexy dancers, opera divas and hosts bigger than their own egos. Other cast members included Susan Bertoia, Marco Soriano, Louis Chirillo, Lia Como and Opera singer Maria Cristina Fantini. For more: www.bellaluna.ca
