VOL. 9, NO. 1

DECEMBER 2006

Working like a MAD HATTER!

Actor Stefano Giulianetti has often been called foolish, but this time he's truly going Mad! This December the level-headed performer will be causing a ruckus on the Sagebrush Theatre stage in Western Canada Theatre's Alice: A Wonderland. His roles include the White Knight, Charles Dodgson, the Rose and the Mad Hatter. When asked by 'much ado' how he prepares for such a madcap role as the Hatter, his reply was simply "Elephant."

The show will be directed by Janet Michael and cast mates include members of BellaLuna Theatre Susan Bertoia and Marco Soriano as well as Lisa Oppenheim, Sara Holt, Ian Gschwind and Vanessa LeBourdais.

This will be the second time Giulianetti has worked for WCT, having performed in Norm Foster's Dear Santa.

New Year, New Clothes

Forget Boxing Day specials, what you really want is the finest cloth available...but rumor has it that if you're stupid or bad at your job, you can't see it!

That's the basic storyline in Axis Theatre's newest TYA touring show The Emperor's New Threads, by Melody and Peter Anderson.

Versatile Actor Stefano Giulianetti along with Josue Laboucane and Tanya Podlozniuk, recently workshopped the new play and will be hitting the road with it in the Winter/Spring 2007 season.
